appellant/claimant has preferred this appeal for enhancement of the compensation.

(3) A perusal of the impugned award shows that the appellant/claimant did not adduce medical evidence to prove grievous injury to the right leg. X-Ray report was also not filed to prove the fact of any grievous injury sustained by the appellant/claimant. Certificate of permanent disability suffered by the appellant/claimant was also not filed. The treating doctor was also not examined.

(4) In this view of the matter, no interference is called for in the impugned award passed by the MACT.

(5) In the result, this appeal being devoid of merit is dismissed at the stage of admission.
